Sifuna Amanzi!

Hundreds of Drieziek 1 and 3 families continue to endure unreliable water access. They are calling on Joburg Water to prioritize repairs and restore their basic right to safe, consistent water.

This crisis has plagued these communities for over a decade. Daily life has become a struggle, with residents forced to trek to neighboring Drieziek 4 just to fetch water. A frustrated resident Tebello told OFN: "Water is a basic right. We need it to drink, bathe, cook and flush toilets. They must take our block back to our original pipe, then all our problems will be solved. My block and two others have more than 500 houses. We have been struggling for ten years -it's not a national issue; it's local. We are tired." Although JoJo tanks have been installed in Drieziek 1, residents complain the water is unsafe for consumption. Another resident said: "Water only comes out from 6am to 7am, and sometimes not at all. This has been going on for years and we demand that JW fix this problem soon. Children are forced to cross busy roads pushing wheelbarrows to fetch water, which is dangerous, but they don't have a choice." Ward 4's Cllr Simon Molefe and community representatives recently visited JW's offices to address this decade-long crisis. JW's spokesperson Nombuso Shabalala, told OFN: "The Orange Farm water system is currently under pressure due to very high demand. This makes it difficult for the Daleside Pump Station to adequately refill the Orange Farm reservoir, which often runs empty overnight. As a result, the reservoir is closed at night to allow recovery so that water is available during the day. Despite this, high-lying areas such as Drieziek 1, 3 and Proper continue to experience low pressure or limited supply." She added: "To improve the system, the CAPEX department is implementing a series of upgrade projects, including infrastructure upgrades, new pipelines and the rollout of prepaid water meters across Orange Farm. To date, about 18 463 prepaid meters have been installed, with approximately 46 878 still planned. These improvements aim to strengthen the network, reduce pressure on the system and support a more reliable water supply for all areas." Despite assurances the delegates received from JW, residents insist immediate action is needed soon.

Evaton serial rapist sentenced to four life terms and 25 years' imprisonment

LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Earlier this month, the Pretoria High Court in Palm Ridge sentenced Evaton's Daniel Nchawe Molefe (33) to four life terms and 25 years' imprisonment for a series of violent crimes committed between 2019 and 2023. Molefe received life sentences for raping four women aged 20, 30, 32, and 34, and additional sentences for robbery, assault, and kidnapping, to run concurrently with some of the life terms. Molefe's attacks were brutal. In 2019, he dragged a 30-year-old woman from a bakkie, assaulted and raped her in a bush. In 2022, he and an accomplice assaulted and raped a 34-year-old woman at her home, and later that year attacked a 20-year-old woman near a petrol station. In 2023, he robbed and raped a 32-year-old woman at a church. All victims reported the crimes to police and received medical, psychological, and legal support at Kopanong Thuthuzela Care Centre. Despite pleading not guilty, compelling evidence, including victim testimonies, proved his guilt beyond doubt. During sentencing, the court highlighted the severity of the crimes, Molefe's lack of remorse, and the lasting trauma to victims, rejecting his request for leniency.

FESTIVE SAFETY TIPS!

The festive season is a time for celebration, but safety should always come first.

When leaving your home for holidays, ensure all doors and windows are securely locked, activate your alarm system if you have one, and ask a trusted neighbor to keep an eye on your property. Avoid posting your travel plans on social media until you return to reduce the risk of burglary.

While partying, always be aware of your surroundings and never accept drinks from strangers. Travel in groups and plan safe transportation options-never drink and drive. Keep valuables like wallets, phones and jewelry out of sight to avoid theft.

At home, switch on timers for lights to give the impression someone is present.

Keep emergency numbers handy: Police - 10111, Fire - 10177, Ambulance/Medical - 10177, Childline - 0800 055 555, Crime Stop Tip-Off Line - 08600 10111.

By staying vigilant and planning ahead, you can enjoy a joyful and safe festive season. Asiphephe kulamaholidi!

The God who sees our affliction!

By Pastor Nomsa, Umusa Community Development Projects

As we enter the festive season, let us reflect on a scripture that reminds us that our God truly sees us, especially in times of crisis.

Often, when facing challenges, we may feel abandoned. But in the story of Hagar in Genesis 16:13-14, we witness God's sovereignty and compassion. God leaves His throne to meet a wounded, heartbroken servant-Hagar, Sarai's maid-in the wilderness. What is so humbling is that God calls Hagar by name, saying, "Hagar, Sarai's maid." This shows that God knows us personally. He knows our pain, our struggles and our hearts. We can take comfort in this truth: no matter how low we feel, God cares deeply for us. Similarly, we have witnessed something remarkable in our nation. For the first time, Africa and South Africa-successfully hosted the G20 Summit. The world came to our land, proving wrong those who underestimate Africa. God shows His love and lifts nations in His perfect timing. As we approach Christmas, whatever your situation maybe, be courageous and comforted. Remember: He is the God who sees, especially in times of affliction. Wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a prosperous 2026.

LFA wishes community a blessed holiday season

The Orange Farm Local Football Association (OFLFA) wishes all teams, coaches, match officials, supporters, partners and the entire Orange Farm community a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. OFLFA Super League's chairperson, Patrick Mokwena, told OFN: "As this festive season is celebrated, it is important to remember the values of family, unity and togetherness. This period provides an opportunity to bond with loved ones and create meaningful memories that will carry into the new year." Mokwena expressed gratitude to the community for its continued support throughout the season. "Your passion and commitment strengthen the football community and LFA looks forward to an exciting and productive 2026 football year," he added.

Timeline Radio crowns kings and queens of kasi hip-hop

MC X Wamapopayi had the crowd locked in, turning the awards at Bakgatlang Pub and Grill into a night to remember

This year's Hip Hop Awards took place on 7 December at Bakgatlang Pub and Grill in Ext 1.

Established in 2023, the awards were created with a bold mission: to close the gap between upcoming and mainstream artists in South Africa. Today, they stand as one of the most credible platforms for empowering new talent, recognising artistic excellence and elevating the next wave of artists pushing to break into the industry. Timeline Radio's Chicco Chau, told OFN: "We are here to create superstars. We want to discover new voices, nurture raw talent and ensure that artists who deserve recognition finally get the platform they need."

This year's event upheld that balance, celebrating both new-wave artists and respected veterans. Among the standout winners were Stan SonofMan, who walked away with the award for Best Music Video, and DJ Malcom, honoured as Best DJ. Shady Jay dominated the stage by securing both Best Collaboration and Best Male Artist, while Golden Boy RSA was recognised in the Best Hip Hop category. The Lyricist of the Year title went to Anti Social-G3ne, and Yellow Keith earned the accolade for Best Hip Hop Producer. Skylar Star was named Best Female Artist, with Samusa taking home the award for Best Mixtape.

The ceremony also included two prestigious honorary awards, presented to industry stalwarts Rashid Kay and Speeka RSA, acknowledging their long-standing contributions to the South African hip hop landscape. With its continued dedication to elevating artistry and connecting emerging talent to the broader industry, the Timeline Radio Hip Hop Awards remain a vital force in shaping the next generation of hip hop excellence.

CoJ hands over title deeds to Drieziek 4 and 5 homeowners

Moments of dignity as MMC Mlungisi Masabo, presents title deeds to happy gogos at Reamohetswe Primary

On 11 November, the City of Johannesburg took a significant step in restoring dignity and security to local families with the handover of 293 title deeds to residents of Drieziek 4 and 5. The handover was led by the MMC for Human Settlements, Cllr Mlungisi Masabo, alongside other City of Joburg officials, as residents - many of whom had waited for years - finally received legal proof of ownership of their homes. Emotions ran high as beneficiaries shared their gratitude after waiting for years, describing the title deeds as more than just documents. For them, they represent security, stability, and dignity, as well as the freedom to invest in and protect their properties for future generations. The milestone forms part of the City's ongoing commitment to put residents first, ensuring access to secure tenure and strengthening communities through formal home ownership.

Ntokozo Shamase and Nhlakanipho "Innocent" Gcwabaza

Sgidongo duo aims to take the genre to higher highs

Ntokozo Shamase, popularly known as Bbe_Ntokzin, and his partner Nhlakanipho "Innocent" Gcwabaza, known as Bbe_Inno, are two talented young DJs making bold moves in the Sgidongo music scene.

Their journey began in school, where both participated in music and talent activities. What started as simple fun quickly revealed a deeper passion and when the two eventually met, their shared love for sound and creativity sparked a powerful partnership.

From playing around with virtual DJs at local taverns to commanding real decks, the duo worked tirelessly to polish their skills. Their dedication paid off as they began drawing attention in their community and beyond. Today, Bbe_Ntokzin and Bbe_Inno are resident DJs at Emnyama Ndawo, Estendeni and Thoko's Palace, where their sets have become crowd favourites. Their youthful energy, unique Sgidongo flavour, and strong teamwork continue to set them apart. Although they are not working on an EP or album yet, the pair is focused on expanding their brand, performing more gigs and building a loyal following. Their dream is to take Sgidongo to bigger stages and inspire other artists to chase their dreams fearlessly.

Defending champions - COVID FC - thrown into "group of death"

The reigning champs are ready to defend their trophy-can they keep it, or will a new champion take the crown?

The stage is set for a dramatic showdown at the Pooe Games 2025, after the official tournament draw placed defending champions COVID 19 FC into the much-feared Group D with All Blacks FC, Simunye Orange and Government FC.

The group is now widely being referred to as the "group of death", alongside the equally dangerous Group E. The prestigious Top 40 tournament will take place from 13 December to 30 December at the Pooe Ground in Evaton, bringing together some of the fiercest kasi football teams from across the region.

Football fans are already predicting explosive clashes as both groups feature established giants, rising talents, and hungry challengers all chasing glory.

Prize money breakdown:

- 1st Place: R200,000
- 2nd Place: R50,000
- 3rd Place: R10,000
- 4th Place: R10,000

With pride, prestige, and serious prize money on the line, all eyes will be on Group D and E, where every match could feel like a final. The big question now remains-can COVID 19 FC survive the toughest group and defend their title?
