Shock as pensioners lose grant money to “unauthorised” deductions

The South African National Civic Organisation (SANCO) in Orange Farm has sounded the alarm after uncovering what it describes as a deeply troubling pattern of unauthorised deductions from pensioners' social grants leaving some of the community's most vulnerable without money for basic survival.

At least seven pensioners in Ward 4 alone have already come forward, with individual deductions ranging between R135 and R210 per month, amounting to over R1,300 in monthly losses a significant blow for elderly residents who depend entirely on their grants. SANCO Ward 4 Deputy Chairperson Godfrey Duma told OFN that the organisation is being overwhelmed with complaints. "We are dealing with a very serious matter that affects the dignity and livelihood of our elderly citizens. These are people who rely on every cent of their grants, and to have money taken without their permission is simply unacceptable," he said. According to SANCO, the deductions believed to be linked to insurance policies are being processed through systems connected to the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) and banking channels, raising urgent questions about how pensioners are being signed up without clear consent. Community reports suggest a disturbing trend: individuals going door-to-door, allegedly targeting elderly residents and convincing them to sign documents they do not fully understand only for deductions to appear later on their grants. Postbank has also issued a strong warning, spokesperson Bongani Diako urged beneficiaries to protect their personal information at all costs. He said: "SASSA and Postbank will never ask beneficiaries to share their PINs or confidential banking details. We urge all grant recipients not to hand over their cards or personal information to anyone. Suspicious deductions must be reported immediately." Meanwhile, SANCO has begun compiling a list of affected pensioners and is working with SASSA to have the deductions investigated and cancelled. "We will not stop until justice is served and every unlawful deduction is reversed," Duma added. The organisations have warned insurance companies to act ethically, stating that any company found to be involved in these practices must be held accountable. Residents are urged to remain vigilant, refuse entry to unknown individuals, and ensure that elderly family members are protected from potential scams that are now threatening their only source of income.

SANEDI sponsors Mphethi Mahlatsi choir following national success

Choir members proudly hold up their sponsorship cheque from SANEDI, awarded in recognition of their achievements across district, regional, provincial, and national choral competitions

This key player in energy and science initiatives, sponsored Mphethi Mahlatsi Secondary School on 24 February after being impressed by the school choir's performance at the Segarona event.

Since then, the choir has participated in district, regional, and provincial competitions, as well as the South African Schools Esterdford Choral Competition, securing first place in all events and earning the title of Best School Choir of the Year.

"This victory means a lot to our school. It has attracted visitors, sponsorships, and increased our social media visibility. I want to thank our principal, Mr Mankeli, for giving me the opportunity to showcase our learners' talent to the Orange Farm community, and the parents for their unwavering support. The success of the choir highlights the school's commitment to excellence in the arts and demonstrates the impact of community and corporate partnerships in nurturing young talent," said Bongani Maphanga, Choir Conductor.

Ext 7b entrepreneur expands local shopping options

Hlangene Motloug at his stall supplying everyday essentials

Small business owner, Hlangene Motloug is bringing convenience and variety to residents near Aha Thuto Secondary School with his stall offering perfumes, herbs, accessories, stationery and more.

Motloug started his business earlier this year, initially selling only stationery. Since then, he has expanded his product range to meet the growing needs of his community.

"People shouldn't have to travel far for everyday things," he said.

He plans to continue growing his business, providing quality products and a personal touch to the Ext 7b neighbourhood.

Motloug says he wants to expand his business beyond the current stall by increasing stock to serve a wider area. His dream is to create sustainable business.

Luke 19 verse 28 to 44

After Jesus said this, He went on ahead, near bethphage and bethany at the mount of olives, he sent two disciples ahead with these instructions: "Go to the village ahead of you; as you go in, you will find a unbridled colt tied there, if someone asks you why you are untying it, say the master needs it. Then they threw their cloaks over the animal and helped Jesus get on. As he rode on, people spread their cloaks on the road. Then some of the pharisees in the crowd spoke to Jesus, "Teacher," they said, "command your disciples to be quiet!" Jesus answered, "I tell you that if they keep quiet, the stones themselves will start shouting. Amen

Healed by His Wounds – Isaiah 53:5
"But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed."
This powerful verse reveals the depth of God's love for humanity. Jesus Christ took our place, carrying the burden of our sins upon Himself. The pain He endured was not His own - it was ours. Every wound, every stripe, was borne so that we might find peace with God. In a world filled with brokenness, sorrow, and uncertainty, this scripture reminds us that healing is not beyond reach. Through Christ, we are offered restoration - spiritually, emotionally, and even physically. His sacrifice was the bridge that reconnects us to God, bringing forgiveness where there was guilt and peace where there was turmoil.
No matter the pain you carry today, remember this truth: you are not alone, and your healing has already been paid for. By His wounds, we are healed.

Siyanda Sithole

I'm heading to church, gotta start Easter with some blessings.
Feels good celebrating the day right?

Karabo Mthembu

I'm keeping it cool with friends. Just chilling, eating, laughing, and soaking up the Easter spirit with good company.

Samkelisiwe Sithole

Same here! Church in the morning, then spending the day with family. Easter lunch, laughs, and chocolate - it's the best!

Thulani Mbatha

I'm having the time of my life! Grooving, dancing, celebrating Easter with music and good energy. Can't wait to feel the vibes!

Refiloe Rathani

I'm staying home with my family. Gonna help my mom cook, eat plenty, and just enjoy being with the people I love. Easter is family time for me!

Sophie Motaung

"I'll be at church all weekend - praising, praying, and giving thanks for my blessings. That's how I celebrate Easter!"

Teboho Motsepe

I'm all about family too. Just chilling with my cousins and siblings, playing games, and enjoying the vibes. Easter's about love and togetherness.

Ingredients

Cups Metric - 2.75 - 3 kg / 5.5 - 6 lb lamb leg, bone-in
1 1/2 tsp cooking salt
1/2 tsp black pepper
Rub - 1 1/2 tbsp fresh rosemary leaves, finely chopped
3 garlic cloves, finely minced
2 tbsp olive oil
Base - 2 whole heads of garlic, halved horizontally
Few sprigs rosemary (optional)
Gravy - 4 tbsp flour, plain/all purpose
1/2 cups beef broth / stock, low sodium

Instructions

- Take lamb out of fridge at least 1 hour before roasting.
- Preheat oven to 240°C/475°.
- Rub mix rosemary, garlic and olive oil.
- Place lamb leg in a roasting pan. Coat with the rub using your hands, the sprinkle with the salt and pepper. Place garlic and rosemary sprigs underneath the lamb, garlic cut face up.
- Roast lamb leg for 20 minutes. Turn the oven down to 200°C/400°F and roast for a further 1 hour.
- Rest - Remove lamb from oven. Transfer lamb to plate, loosely cover with foil and rest for 20 minutes to 1 hour.
- Serve lamb with gravy or classic crunchy roast potatoes, peas and steamed carrots tossed with butter.

Gravy for roast lamb leg

- Drippings in pan - Discard rosemary sprigs. You should have around 4 - 5 tbsp of fat (drippings). If less, add butter. If much more, discard a bit.
- Add flour - Place roasting pan on stove over medium heat. When the fat starts to bubble, then add flour. Mix flour in and cook for 1 minute. Stock - Pour in half the beef stock and mix to dissolve sludge in, then add remaining beef stock and mix.
- Garlic squidding - Use a potato masher (if you're really keen like me) to mash the garlic to squeeze out the flavour (also helps flour caught in garlic to dissolve).
- Thicken - Simmer for a couple of minutes, stirring, until it starts to thicken. Take it off the stove BEFORE the gravy is the thickness you want because it will keep thickening.
- Strain into a bowl, mashing garlic to squeeze all the liquid out. Then pour into gravy jug and serve with lamb!

Meals on Wheels hosts 5km walk for the elderly and disabled in Orange Farm

Participants celebrate their medals while elderly women take to the road, highlighting a community united support, strength and inclusion

An annual 5km fundraising walk aimed at promoting health and social interaction among elderly residents and people living with disabilities took place on 18 March. The event, organised by Bongani Maphoto, Tshepo Matsipa and founder - Maria Tshakela, drew participation from more than 300 attendees representing 14 organisations. Organisers said the initiative encourages active living among senior citizens while providing a platform for them to socialise and connect with peers from other community groups. The walk formed part of efforts to promote wellness and inclusivity in the community, with emphasis on maintaining both physical health and social well-being among the elderly. This annual event continues to grow, reinforcing its role as a key community gathering that brings together vulnerable groups in a supportive environment. Meals on Wheels may be contacted on 072 909 2092.

Drieziek 4 Learners receive reproductive health education

Stakeholders from health, education, and community organisations gather with learners leading interactive sessions and connecting directly with students on important life skills

On 16 March, learners at Thetha Secondary School were given vital lessons on pregnancy prevention and sexual and reproductive health during a visit by Stretford Community Health Centre's Adolescent and Youth Friendly Services (AYFS), the Department of Basic Education (DBE), Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital Social Work Department, South African National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence, and the local men's forum. Sister Fikile told OFN: "Our goal is to empower young people with the knowledge and tools they need to make safe and responsible choices. By engaging both girls and boys, and providing hygiene packs, we ensure every learner feels supported and informed." According to Sister Fikiles statement Men's Sector was there as well, to give boys the attention they need. Hygiene packs were distributed too. It was a joint effort to educate learners on pregnancy prevention and sexual reproductive health. The initiative aimed to equip young people with knowledge on responsible decision-making, access to health services, and ways to prevent early and unplanned pregnancies. Organisers described the programme as a collaborative effort to address pressing social and health challenges in the community.

GBV Imbizo raises concerns over access to justice in Orange Farm

On 27 February, Residents of Orange Farm gathered this event hosted by Lawyers Against Violence (LvA), aimed at raising awareness and addressing critical challenges faced by survivors.

The primary purpose of the GBV Imbizo, hosted at the Multi-Purpose Hall, was to educate the community about GBV, while also shedding light on the difficulties encountered when assisting victims. LvA further highlighted ongoing challenges reported by the Pooritjie community, particularly the long distances residents must travel to access police services. Teboho Mashota, Legal Programme Manager told OFN "We hosted the imbizo to raise awareness on GBV and highlight challenges faced when assisting community members in Orange Farm. We also wanted to flag challenges raised by the Pooritjie community when accessing justice, as they have to travel a long distance to the police station. Additionally, we aimed to update the community on the survivors we've assisted in the last 5 years." The event brought together several key stakeholders, including Life-Line, Afrikka Tukkun, Stredford Clinic, Bannie Moloko Clinic, Soul City Institute, Isizinda Sempilo, Khroni Men's Forum, and the Basic Packages Programme, among others. During the engagement, community members raised serious concerns about access to justice and the response of police officers to GBV cases. Women in attendance were also encouraged to speak out and avoid remaining in abusive relationships. LvA reaffirmed its commitment to continuing its work in Orange Farm, providing free legal services, court support, and case monitoring for survivors. The organisation also emphasised its role in holding state institutions accountable when victims are denied justice. Looking ahead, LvA plans to continue hosting legal education workshops within the community and is exploring the possibility of making the GBV Imbizo an annual event, subject to funding availability.

LAV members, stakeholders and residents express concerns over access to justice, policing and support for survivors, as the organisation reaffirmed its commitment to providing legal assistance and advocating for victims

Young DJ Mduvadedj brings amapiano and 3Step to local clubs

Mduduzi Mazibuko from Orange Farm Ext 7b, performing as Mduvadedj, is gaining recognition for his amapiano and 3 steps sets across kasi nightspots where his energetic style attracts growing crowds. He began Djing in 2022 and has since performed at Kweneng, African Car Wash, Mkhabela's Café, Ha Madineo, Mimis Pub and Grill, and London Bites, where he is also as resident DJ. "I started Djing because I wanted to share my love for music and create unforgettable experiences and memories for people. Performing at different venues has helped me grow and connect with my audience," Mduvadedj said. He is scheduled to perform at London Bites on 3 April during its Hookah Friday event, Mduvadedj says his passion for music continues to drive him as he works to grow his brand and bring quality entertainment to Orange Farm and beyond.

Mjuzzer releases amapiano single "Ethilini"

Mbongeni Menze, known by his stage name Mjuzzer is stepping into the spotlight with his upcoming amapiano single "Ethilini", released on 15 March. The Ext 2-based newcomer only began his music journey on 23 February 2026 but is already positioning himself as an emerging voice in the genre. "Ethilini" centers on the pursuit and influence of money, reflecting themes that resonate strongly with young listeners navigating ambition and survival. The track marks Mjuzzer's first official release, signaling the start of what he hopes will be a promising career in amapiano. Despite being new to the scene, Mjuzzer is using digital platforms to introduce his sound and connect with a growing audience. With momentum building around "Ethilini", the rising artist is one to watch as he begins carving his path in South Africa's competitive music industry. Viska Da Vee blends amapiano and Hip-Hop in "Konkosi"

Orange Farm Ext 9 artist Viska Da Vee, born Vuyisile Phama is carving a name in the local music scene with his genre-blending sound. The amapiano performer, active since 2020, gained attention with his 2023 single Konkosi, featuring MTK Vibe. The track reflects a deliberate fusion of amapiano rhythms and hip-hop influences, highlighting Viska Da Vee's versatility and creative direction. "We wanted to collaborate as a hip-hop singer and amapiano artist to create something different," Viska Da Vee said. Having performed in Metsing, the rising artist continues to build his presence through live shows and digital platforms. His music speaks to a growing audience drawn to experimental sounds within South Africa's evolving music landscape. With Konkosi, Viska Da Vee positions himself among emerging talents pushing boundaries and redefining genre lines, signaling strong potential for wider recognition in the industry. Young RSA Prepares to drop debut EP

Lesedi Maziba, who goes by the stage name Young RSA from Ext 3, is set to launch his EP titled The Roots of Young RSA, a soulful Amapiano project that reflects his journey, struggles and aspirations. Maziba, who began making music in his early teens, says his passion was driven by a desire to express his life through sound. "This EP tells my personal journey - how I grew up dreaming of becoming an artist, inspired by great Amapiano DJs. It reflects my struggles, belief in myself, and the spiritual connection I have with music," he said. Although he has not yet taken to major stages, the young artist is currently focused on building his brand and preparing for live performances while working on releasing quality music. The upcoming EP, with a release date yet to be confirmed, explores themes of growth, healing and purpose. Maziba describes it as a reflection of rising above challenges and chasing his dreams through music.

Proud moments as these beauties share the stage following a successful and empowering event

On 28 February, this much-anticipated pageant concluded at the Multipurpose Hall, celebrating beauty, resilience, and community spirit as three young women were crowned winners.

Matshidiso Tivana was named Queen, with Basetsana Thotobolo awarded 1st Runner-Up and Makhosazana Maduna taking the position of 2nd Runner-Up. The event, founded and organised by Phumeza Lukhele, drew local support and showcased emerging talent from the community. Despite facing logistical challenges during preparations, Lukhele expressed satisfaction with the outcome.

"Everything went well even though it was a bit tough. We had some challenges here and there, but I managed to overcome them. The event became a success, and I am very happy," she said. The pageant continues to serve as a platform empowering young women in Orange Farm, promoting confidence, leadership, and social engagement. Attendees praised the event for its organisation and the high standard of contestants.

Looking ahead, organizers have already begun preparations for the 2027 edition and are calling on potential sponsors to support the growth of the initiative. Lukhele emphasized that sponsorship would help expand opportunities for participants and improve the scale of the event. "We are looking for sponsors and would be very happy to secure support for Miss Face of Orange Farm 2027," she added.

"Projects Baby" ignites Taynine Thee Yungin's trap takeover

Teboho Rantho, known as Taynine Thee Yungin, is gaining traction in the hip-hop scene with his latest single "Projects Baby", released on SoundCloud in January and YouTube on 13 March.

The trap-focused artist began making music in 2021 during lockdown using the RapFame app. The song delivers a personal narrative, reflecting on youthful mistakes and the lessons learned. "Projects Baby is based on the mistakes I made when I was young and how I had to learn from them," he said. Taynine has built performance experience, appearing at the Hillbrow Radio Open Mic Show in 2024 and performing "Articulate", a track featuring Fury Rampage, at the Orange Farm Fashion Show the same year. Currently working on his upcoming EP "Mixed Emotions", he continues to grow his presence across digital platforms, positioning himself as a rising voice in South Africa's trap scene. Umshin38 makes his mark with "Izinja Emphakathini"

Sizwe "Umshin38" Shabalala is making waves in the amapiano scene with his debut EP 'Izinja Emphakathini', released late last year.

The Orange Farm Ext 10 artist, based near Angie's Diner & Catering, has been firmly building his profile since launching his music journey in March 2022. Known for energetic performances at Dongas Tavern in Lenasia South, Swazi Kitchen in Orange Farm, and Winnie's Inn, Umshin38 continues to connect with audiences through his vibrant sound and message-driven music. The EP reflects both personal ambition and community upliftment. "I wanted to showcase my talent and inspire young brothers and sisters that anything is possible, no matter how hard things can be. Staying positive is key," he said. With a growing social media presence and consistent performances, Umshin38 is positioning himself as a rising voice in the country's amapiano movement.

Austin rises "Against All Odds" in powerful debut project

Orange Farm Ext 3's rapper Austin, real name Prince Sithole, is steadily rising following the release of his debut project 'Against All Odds'.

The Hip-Hop artist, who began his music journey in June 2025, delivers a deeply personal body of work rooted in perseverance, faith and real-life struggles.

Austin told OFN "Against All Odds is about overcoming challenges and believing in yourself even when the situation looks impossible."

The project reflects Austin's determination to succeed despite challenges, offering listeners an honest narrative of resilience and self-belief. With inspirational undertones, his music aims to connect with audiences facing adversity. Currently building his presence as an independent artist, Austin is sharing his work through digital platforms while preparing for future live performances. His growing online footprint includes Instagram and TikTok, where he engages fans and promotes his sound. Against All Odds marks a significant first step in his career, signaling the emergence of a promising new voice in the local hip-hop scene. Help Ambitiouz FC chase big dreams ahead of Pretoria games!

Local rising talent lines up on their home ground, eager and ready to participate in the Super Cup Soccer Tournament

This team, based in Orange Farm Ext 1, has issued a public appeal for sponsorship as it prepares to compete in the upcoming Super Cup Soccer Tournament in Pretoria.

It is also set to host a fundraising tournament on 4 April, aimed at raising funds to cover travel and competition expenses. Community members are encouraged to attend and contribute toward the initiative.

Club manager, Themba Sibiyi, said the team remains committed to developing young talent despite financial challenges. "We are seeking any form of sponsorship to help our team compete at a higher level.

Every contribution will be used responsibly to support our players and ensure they have the opportunity to grow," Sibiyi added.

He also expressed gratitude to Cllr Dimakatso Jeannette Ramafikeng for pledging support to uplift youth in the community. "We are thankful for her support that we've already received. We hope more stakeholders will come on board before 4 April to help us reach our goal," he added. Please support Ambitiouz FC's fundraising event to ensure its participation in the Pretoria league.
